

Position Description

Chief Coach

The chief coach, is to coordinate, monitor and enhance the quality of coaching of team coaches, at training and on competition days.

The chief coach reports directly to the Vice President of each division of the Byford Bushrangers Inc

The chief coach is elected by the members by nomination at the Annual General Meeting, or by committee vote at a general meeting if the position is deemed vacant. The chief coach has NO voting rights on any matters.

Responsibilities and Duties

The chief coach should:

- Lead the recruitment, appointment and development of all coaches at the club
 - Encourage coaches to complete accredited courses
 - Assist in the development of training plans and tutorials
 - Build through consultation a game plan / style of play for all teams that is age appropriate
 - Provide guidance and oversee the use of core training drills and skills that support the club's game plan and style
 - Provide training night assistance in introducing the core training skills and drills
 - Communicate regularly with all coaches, providing regular feedback on their performance and impact at training and on competition days
 - Monitor and assess skills development progression for each age group
 - Prepare and convene development sessions for all coaches / assistant coaches
 - Attend all subcommittee meetings
-

Knowledge and Skills Required

Ideally the chief coach is someone who is:

- Well organised
- Strong Communication skills
- Hold or willing to apply for a current volunteer “working with children” check (if required)
- Good networking and interpersonal skills
- Strong writing skills
- Respectful and effective communication
- Has a good working knowledge of the Rules of Association, By laws, Policies and the duties of all office holders and subcommittees

If at any stage the chief coach becomes aware of a personal conflict of interest, real or perceived between themselves and the club, they should immediately notify the Secretary of the conflict who will immediately inform all other committee members.

The estimated time commitment required as the chief coach of the club is approximately

Preseason

- 3 hours per week.
- Facilitate groups session for coaches
- Support at individual team training

Mid-season

- As required on competition days.
- As required at team training

The chief coach is appointed for a term of 12 months or by special resolution.
